Discuss N. Lenox School Problems

Law to Abolish Non-High School Districts
Is Grave Problem For Villages

Next Wednesday, February 22, will be Washington's birthday, and an American's thoughts turn naturally to the foundations of our republic and to the great work wrought by the Founding Fathers.

Next week February 19 to 26 is also Brotherhood Week. This week has been chosen in recognition of that great statement of belief in the inviolate right of every man to "worship God according to the dictates of his heart."

Harvey I. Cooper, Well Known Orland Farmer, Dies Feb. 9

Harvey I. Cooper, well known Orland farmer, died in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago Thursday, February 9, following a month's illness. He underwent surgery a few weeks ago. Mr. Cooper has lived in Orland township all his life having been born February 28, 1897 on the Cooper homestead, where he lived all his life. He was the son of Edgar and the late Lydia Hollstein Cooper. He was a member of the Orland Park Methodist church all his life, and held offices in several local organizations.

On February 8, 1919 he was united in marriage with Maria J. Keuch who survives him. Other survivors are his father, a son, Marvin H. Cooper, of Orland Park; a daughter, Mrs. Lois Hossbach, of Frankfort, one grandson, Robert M. Cooper and two brothers, Charles and Thomas of Orland.

Funeral services were held from the Schmaedeke funeral home Saturday, February 11 to the Orland Park Methodist church, with the pastor Rev. M. E. Rompel officiating. Burial was in Orland Memorial cemetery.

Christ Sangmeisters To Celebrate 25th Anniversary Sunday

In honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Sangmeister, Mrs. Loreta Maas and Mrs. Margaret Sleek will hold open house this Sunday, February 19, in their parents' home at 151 N. Raynor ave., Joliet. They are inviting all relatives and friends to call between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock and 7 and 9 in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sangmeister farmed in Green Garden township until 1943 when they moved to the Will County farm where he was appointed superintendent. He was assisted by his wife and daughters. Retiring from this position in 1949 the family moved to the Raynor avenue address.

Mr. Sangmeister had been Republican committeeman from Green Garden for many years.

WINTER ARRIVED SUNDAY NIGHT WITH CRIPPLING ICE AND SNOW

some winter weather and snow, and After waiting all winter for relief for the weatherman, with his predictions, Sunday evening winter finally made it.

It started to drizzle Sunday evening and by Monday morning the ground was well covered with snow and ice and by 8:15 the electric service in Mokena, Frankfort, New Lenox and other nearby towns was off.

Trees, heavy with ice, began breaking, some falling on telephone and power lines, causing them to break. Telephone and power lines on route 45 were down, along Mokena road leading to route 45 telephone lines, weighted with ice, were down; likewise on Wolf road, north of 159th street the lines swayed down; on Harlem avenue north of Tinley Park the same. On North Cedar road in New Lenox, 39 telephone poles and lines were down.

In Frankfort the power went off Monday morning in the north section of the village and was not Much concerned by the enactment of House Bill 1070, by the state legislature, the board of education of the New Lenox grade school district is mailing pamphlets concerning the legislation to all the homes in the district this week. The board has been called to meet with Frankfort and Manhattan to discuss the problems arising from this bill which abolishes all non-high school districts, and is effective as of July 1, 1953.

Although the grade school board has no legal responsibility to concern itself with education of the pupils beyond the grades, their spokesman said, "It is the opinion of the board that we do have a certain civic responsibility to bring these matters to the attention of the parents and the school patrons of the district and to initiate action for improving education on any and all levels."

As reported by the board, there are these alternatives: first, the local districts may pay tuition for all their high school students to attend a nearby high school. This would mean paying in the neighborhood of $42,000.00 and they have an annual education fund of only $10,000.00.

The second is that this district would attach itself to an adjacent high school district, which is untenable as the first for the same reason.

The third would be to form a high school district in New Lenox which would be sound educationally because the district is too small and per capita costs would be too high to justify the limited courses it would permit.

The fourth would be to unite with an adjacent district to form either a high school or unit district. In adopting this course the legislature might rule the small districts out of existence and in a few years the problem would again confront the board.

The reasonable alternatives left, in the opinion of the board are that they could attach New Lenox to the Joliet township high school districts or form a unit somewhat along the lines suggested by the Will County survey committee.

The advantages of the first are that the students would benefit by the wide curriculum offered at Joliet HS and the relative convenience to the school. The disadvantages are that the New Lenox children would lack the opportunity to participate in the extra-curricular activities. Also, many parents have cited incidents where there were losses of school books and personal property and other problems involving discipline that the Joliet faculty cannot solve because of the size of their student body.

The New Lenox board is of the opinion that creating a new school district in this area as proposed by the survey committee, would make possible the establishment of a sound education program for all the children of the district.

The meeting at Frankfort, to be held Monday, February 20, will give an opportunity for open discussion of the school problems. Following this meeting the New Lenox board is inviting all of the school districts of New Lenox township to consider the proposals made at the Frankfort meeting.

resumed again until Tuesday evening. Then the trouble was located on White street through a short in the power circuit.

Farmers who have all electric farms, milked many cows by machine ordinarily. They felt the lack of power and lights keenly. Likewise homes heating with gas, oil or stoker and depending on power to run the heating mechanism, had difficulty. Many instances neighbors opened their homes to those who cooked and heated electrically.

Repair crews of the Bell Telephone and Public Service companies worked heroically without sleep for many hours, to restore service. Finally the Companies sent some of the men home to get eight hours of sleep and then they reported again to relieve others.

In Mokena there was no village water for several hours late Monday afternoon until power was restored and the electric water pump started filling the storage tank again.

NEW LENOX LIONS DISCUSS COMMUN. BLDG.

by Mrs. Leonard Anderson
John Oster, New Lenox Lions Club Secretary, was authorized by the club at their last meeting, Wednesday night February 8, held in the Burns dining room, to communicate with the officers of all organizations in New Lenox Township to meet in the New Lenox grade school, Thursday, March 2 for the purpose of discussing the possibility of building a community center in New Lenox.

A committee consisting of Fred Francis, Sheldon Hauck, Mr. Oster and Stephen Sergeant, are to arrange for the meeting. They plan to have tax experts and others familiar with the organization of such districts, present at the meeting.

The proposal is primarily to learn whether the heads of the organizations feel that New Lenox has the need of such a building. If they decide that it does, then a public meeting will be arranged in the future.

Mrs. Walter Harnack Heads Frankfort PTA

The PTA held their fifth birthday and Founder's day party Wednesday evening, February 8 at 8 o'clock in the school. Mrs. Harnack Patterson was in charge of the program. Mrs. Herbert Folkers led in group singing in different parts of the program.

The officer's table was decorated with five candles in holders that Mrs. Patterson had recently brought from Denmark. By each candle rested a rose corsage, one which was later presented to Mrs. Herbert Folkers, the only past president to be present. The present officers also received corsages as did Miss Viola Lankenau, principal, when Mrs. Leo Peterson, president, presented her with the certificate the PTA had purchased in her honor for the golden jubilee scholarship. Miss Lankenau thanked the PTA for the honor bestowed on her. She also thanked the PTA for their cooperation in helping with the March of Dimes collection.

Mrs. Peterson showed the plans for the PTA Memorial building that is to be built in Chicago in the near future. We are to be asked for a donation toward this building fund at a later date.

It was voted to purchase the tickets for the officers and teachers each year for the Founder's Day banquet. The banquet is to be held at the Masonic Temple in Joliet February 23. Reservations must be in by Feb. 18. Anyone wishing to attend may notify Mrs. Peterson before that date.

Mrs. Folkers gave a report on the Home Maker's conference she attended at the Taft school. She said that it was so interesting and so many novel ideas used that no homemaker should ever miss it. It was voted to purchase an electric pop cooler as it is almost impossible to get ice when it is needed. A different cooler is necessary as the original one developed leaks.

The nominating committee consisted of Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Bert Larson, presented the names of the officers for the coming year as follows: Mrs. Walter Harnack, president; Mrs. Burton Breitert, first vice president; Miss Viola Lankenau, second vice president; Mrs. Meredith Runk and Mrs. Orval Schroeder, treasurer.

As there were no nominations from the floor the officers were accepted as read.

Donations of coat hangers were again asked for as they are badly needed in the check room.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Runk were thanked for their donation of the printed tickets for the card party and dance on Feb. 11.

A humorous skit, concerning a PTA story, "The Oak Leaf," by Mrs. Marrow Marshall, was presented by Mesdames Patterson, Runk, Harnack, Larson, Harold Moore and Clarence Waldvogel.

Following the program a large birthday cake was cut and served with coffee by the hostesses at a Valentine decorated table. The hostesses were Mrs. Lester Heisner, Mrs. Roy Koerner, Mrs. Clarence Heisner and Mrs. Stanley Johnson.

Orland Student in Spelling Finals

Gerald Kietz, eighth grade student at the Orland Park Elementary school, participated in the finalist spelling contest sponsored by the Chicago Daily News on the WNER television program Saturday night, February 11.

Gerald was eliminated from the contest about half way through it when he misspelled the word "exhilarating."

NEW LUMBER CO. OPENS AT MOKENA IN TEMPORARY OFFICE

We'll All Have a Good Time This Sat.

By THE OFFICE BOY

Well sir, I went down to the new VFW hall last Tuesday night and I'll tell you it was a job getting there, the condition the weather was in. But I made it just in time to help Mr. and Mrs. Morry Larson celebrate their silver wedding anniversary—but I was the only one there. That seemed pretty odd to me seeing as how I gave them a write-up last week on it, so I started to get thoughts about the "pulling power" of the press. So I mooched back up town, looking for Mr. Larson, but I couldn't even find him.

Anyway, I found his right hand man, Mr. Reihn, and he said, sonny, where have you been for the last 24 1/2 hours? Didn't you know that the shindig was postponed on account of the weather? Then he said something about what kind of a newspaper man I was, and I felt pretty ashamed of myself for not having found out about it, especially before I waded through the snow to go to the party.

Well, according to Mrs. Larson, the party is postponed to this Saturday night, Feb. 18, and I guess there will be a bigger crowd than ever to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Morris Larson. I know I'll be there—won't you?

C. U. Later.

P. S. (Note to the VFW) Thanks for your invitation to bicycle my way down to the hall and find out about the St. Patrick's dance, but I'll have to wait until the snow is gone. I tried runners on the old bike—but it wouldn't work. I couldn't use the pedals so I might as well walk.

WAYFARERS WILL MEET TONIGHT

The meeting of the Mokena Wayfarers club will be held at 8:00 p.m. sharp tonight instead of Friday, which was set for the regular meeting. This change in dates is due to the fact that the Joliet Shrine club is having a musicale in the Joliet high school auditorium then. The meeting will be held in the basement of the new Vets hall on Wolf road. All master Masons of Mokena and vicinity are urged to attend.

Burch-Coleman Vows Spoken February 11

Homer church was the scene of a beautiful wedding Saturday afternoon, February 11, at three o'clock, when Miss Shirley Burch, older daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Reed Burch, became the bride of James Coleman, son of Major and Mrs. James Coleman of Chicago.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold Finley before the altar which was beautiful with palms and bouquets of white gladioli and 'mums.

Shirley, who was dressed in a bridal gown of white slipper satin with fitted bodice, and illusion neckline, with a long train and finger tip nylon-net veil edged with lace and held in place with a beaded headband, was given in marriage by her father. Her friend, Mrs. Clifford Berglund of Lockport, was matron of honor, while Carol Burch, the bride's sister, was junior bridesmaid.

Mrs. Berglund wore turquoise blue faille and Miss Carol a similar gown of rose pink; they carried small muffs matching their dresses and decorated with small bouquets of vari-colored sweet peas. The bride's bouquet was white roses centered with an orchid.

Mrs. George Milton played a fifteen minute program of appropriate music as the guests were assembling and Miss Elaine Ott very charmingly sang "Because" and "Through the Years." As part of the ceremony, she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Serving Mr. Coleman as best man was his friend, Harold Kirk from North Dakota. Reed Lynn Burch and Raymond Carlson were ushers. Miss Dorothy Gecan of Joliet presided over the guest book.

About 75 guests attended the reception which followed at the Burch home. A large wedding cake graced the dining table which was covered with an elaborate cutwork embroidered cloth. Mrs. Willard Rowley Jr. and Mrs. Harold Finley cut and served the cake, while Mrs. R. W. Carlson presided over the silver coffee service, and Mrs. Joe Vansell served the punch.

Walter W. Welsch and Elias A. Brown, who were formerly connected with the Joliet Cash & Carry Lumber company of Joliet, are now operating their yard, the Construction is to commence as soon as the railroad moves the several tool houses and shanties and miscellaneous equipment now occupying part of the site of the new lumber yard.

Walter W. Welsch was born in Joliet January 28, 1899, where he was reared and attended the Joliet public schools, graduating from Joliet Township high school; attended Chicago Technical college and then served in the Armed Forces in World War I.

After receiving his honorable discharge, he entered the concrete products business, under the name of Welsch Waterproof Block Co. In 1939 he sold his interest in the concrete business to enter the lumber business in Joliet under the name of Joliet Cash & Carry Lumber company and sold his interest in that business last year to enter the lumber business in Mokena with Elias Brown under the name of Welsch Lumber & Supply company.

Elias Brown was born in Warren, Minn. December 2, 1912. After graduating from Warren high school he attended North Western School of Commerce in Portland, Oregon where he also was employed in the Lumber industry. Moved to Joliet in 1939 to enter the employ of the Joliet Cash & Carry Lumber Co. of Joliet and now is associated with Walter W. Welsch in their new venture, the Welsch Lumber & Supply Co. here in Mokena.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Coleman left on their honeymoon, she was wearing a gray sharkskin suit with matching topcoat and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will live in a Chicago apartment.

The bride's mother was dressed in aqua crepe with brown accessories, while Mrs. Coleman Sr., wore a silver tan satin afternoon dress. Both wore corsages of yellow daffodils.

The groom formerly attended Nevada State university and is now employed by a Chicago business firm. The bride, who is a graduate of Lockport Township high school, has recently been employed at the Phoenix Machine company office in Joliet.

Guests were present from North Dakota; Gary, Ind.; Chicago, Joliet, Lockport, Downers Grove, and Ohio, Illinois.

MASKED DANCE HUGE SUCCESS

The Frankfort school gym was the scene of a Valentine masquerade dance and card party last Saturday night. The evening's entertainment was sponsored by the Frankfort PTA. The gym was decorated with hearts, frilled valentines, and cupid that had their arrows aimed at the dancers. The music for the modern and square dancing was furnished by Harry Hohenhess's orchestra from Joliet. Ross Shinneman of Joliet did the calling for the Square dances and also acted as master of ceremonies.

The judges, Mrs. Margaret Semmler of Mokena, William Barrowman of Joliet and Dr. W. V. Hedges of Frankfort, did an excellent job on the difficult task of selecting the winners from the many masqueraders. It was a difficult task due to the fact that there were many fine costumes, and also because some of those masquerading as ladies and girls turned out to be men and boys during the unmasking, and those masquerading as men and boys were ladies and girls.

The final selections of the judges were: Highlander boy and girl, Dr. and Mrs. James Moser; bride and bridesmaid, Mrs. C. Haakinson and Mrs. Louis Ebert; George and Martha Washington, Violet Hurley and June Nieland; cop and wife, Marvin Weitendorf and Geo. Sangmeister, Jr., old farmer and wife, Mrs. and Mrs. Lester Holt; Uncle Sam and Mrs. Columbia, Ed Gaines and Isabella Harnening; Jap-anese couple, Dolores Knickrehm and Ruth Seay, Chinese lady, Donna Chestnut, Doris Chestnut and Clarabelle Sippel; comical men Len Pearson and Mable Fink; comical lady, Mrs. Osmar Knickrehm; clowns, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schroeder.

The winners in the children's group were: cardboard box, Billy Noble; drum majorette, Alice Seay; cowboy group, Dickie, Roger and Marvin Lehnert; cowboy with spurs, Glenn Patterson; marine girl Beverly Johnson, Hollander couple JoAnn and Juanita Hansen; clown, Willa Schroeder; comical girl, Chas. Mark, comical group, Herschel Cave, Allen Mager and Herb Folkers Jr., best representative of Valentine's Day, Allen Fink.

Pinochle was in progress in the upstairs auditorium and honors went to the following players: Herbert Kohlhaugen, Conrad Sangmeister, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Daugherty, Osmar Knickrehm, Lawrence Woodman, Geo. Schroeder, Charles Mark, Mrs. Geo. Seay, Mrs. Alvin Cheney, Geo. Folkers, Mrs. Bert Larson, Mrs. Henry Guehrer Jr., Mrs. Walter Baumgartner, Mrs. Betty Lou Carroll and Mrs. Harry Miller.

The following Frankfort business men helped make the evening a success by their donations toward the prizes: A. C. Bauch Garage, Baumann Bros., Baumgartner Construction Co., Bee-Hive, Walter Bettenhausen, B&M Lumber Co., H. G. Breidert, Clover Farm Store, Frankfort Gift & Novelty Shop, Frankfort Grain Co., Frankfort Motor & Equipment, Frankfort Tavern, Robert Fredin, Hedges Clinic, Mrs. Priami, Mark Hardware store, Pfaff's Barber Shop, Richelleu Food Market, R. F. Warning garage, Sangmeister's Electric Sales, Orval Schroeder and Alfred Zechlin.

Gas Engine Saved Water Supply

The old gasoline engine in Orland Park village pump house had to be pressed into service Monday night after the sleet storm had interrupted the usual electric power supply for the village pump. The Village Board has been discussing the advisability of erecting an elevated storage tank, so that there will be more available water under pressure in storage when emergencies arise.

Mokena received another shock last Friday evening when two of their young men figured in a serious auto accident.

Ervin Hentsch, 24, and his friend Robert Kreml, 18, were driving to Joliet in Hentsch's 1949 Kaiser when what is called the "Old Brick Tavern", about two miles east of New Lenox, around 7 p.m., Kreml lost control of the car and in attempting to get back on the highway from the shoulder, collided with a semi-trailer truck, going east.

Following happened to be Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Muehler and children and Mrs. Harry Mall of Mokena, who stopped. Mr. Muehler put the two boys in his car and rushed them to Silver Cross hospital. Mrs. Muehler and children and Mrs. Mall were taken to the hospital to join Mr. Muehler by another motorist from Frankfort.

The boys were in deep shock when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hentsch and Mr. and Mrs. George Kreml all of Mokena arrived at the hospital.

Hentsch was cut across his face on both cheeks, his nose, lips and gums. Dr. George Brannon of Manhattan was called, who operated on Hentsch that same evening. Over 263 stitches were required as well as plastic surgery. He was in the operating room for over four hours. He had two blood transfusions. Private nurses were on duty with him at all times and Tuesday another x-ray was taken of his knee. He is doing quite nicely and it is hoped he will soon be over the worst suffering. He is in room 134.

Because of the serious condition of Kreml, it was not possible to take x-rays at once, but by Sunday the x-rays revealed the left side of his diaphragm had been ruptured along with the left liver lobe; that his stomach, nearly all of the small intestine, a portion of the large intestine and the spleen had been shoved up into the left chest opening. This pushed the heart to the right and the left lung was badly damaged from the pressure.

Sunday afternoon Dr. Raymond J. Kennedy and Dr. William Lees of Joliet, operated on young Kreml to correct the internal condition. He was in the operating room 2 1/2 hours. Four blood transfusions were given. Private nurses are with him constantly and by Wednesday noon the latest word was that, although still under the oxygen tent, he is now breathing with both lungs. His parents feel that providing no complications set in, he will improve nicely. He is in room 212 in the hospital. His father is employed in the Internal Revenue office in Joliet. Robert is a member of the senior class in the Joliet township high school.

Charles L. Danielson, 54, of rural route 1, La Crosse, Ind., was driving a 1950 Ford semi-trailer truck. In the collision his cab was thrown off the highway into the field, damage to the cab amounting to $2500. Mr. Danielson was going east as the boys were going west. A Joliet wrecking company towed the wrecked cab to Indiana.

SCRIPTURE Acts 15:1-35; Galatians 2. DEVOTIONAL READING: John 8:31-36.

Fight for Freedom

Lesson for February 19, 1950.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS of problems with living things. One is the kind of problem caused by its growing too fast; the other is the problem caused by not growing fast enough. The early church had mostly the first kind of problem. At any rate it was taking in a lot of members whom the older Christians found strange. At first all Christians had been Jews; no one thought of anything else. But in Antioch, as we have seen, and even more as the church spread westward around the edge of the Mediterranean, the Christian churches were filling up with non-Jewish members, just as they are today.

It is no secret that in the Masonic order there are 33 degrees. It is not possible for a new member to be taken right into the 33rd degree the first night. Everybody has to go through the lower degrees which are called the Blue Lodge. Now many persons in that early church thought of the Jewish faith as a sort of Christian Blue Lodge.

All the very earliest Christians had been members of that lodge; why shouldn't every one else be the same? So when Paul and Barnabas came back from that historic missionary tour of Cyprus and points north, telling about the large number of new Christians, these old-style Christians shook their heads.

Paul was by-passing the Blue Lodge; he was taking in members who had not gone through the proper preliminaries, the first degrees.

What Makes a Man A Christian?

PAUL KNEW a real Christian when he saw one. So did Barnabas. And the two of them knew, right down in their souls, that they had seen real conversions, genuine cases of persons coming out of pagan darkness into Christian light, without being Jews at all, even for five seconds.

The vital question was simply this: What makes a Christian? The old-style Christians, who had been Jews themselves and still were, for all their Christian faith, said: Unless you are circumcized and keep all the laws of Moses, you cannot be saved—you cannot even begin to be a Christian. Paul and Barnabas—not alone, but as spokesmen for many others in the church—said: You are saved by faith.

The Jerusalem Christians said: Yes, you are saved by faith, AND by keeping the law of Moses. Paul said: you are saved by faith, period.

How They Settled It

THE WAY that problem was settled is a model for all Christian churches with problems on their hands. First of all, the argument was brought out into the open; it was not a whispering campaign. Second, it was settled after giving both sides plenty of opportunity for full discussion in public. Third, it was settled not informally but by a church council, a group of representative leaders, not by a simple majority vote of all church members indiscriminately. Fourth, it was settled (as the reader of Acts 15 may see) by appeals to fact and to Scripture.

Finally, once the leaders had made up their minds, the church at large accepted their decision promptly, without further bickering. This has been the pattern for the Christian church ever since, though alas! it has not always been followed.

There would have been fewer church splits if the example of the early church had been more seriously taken.

Faith and Obedience

ESSENTIALLY, that first great church council decided on the side of Paul and Barnabas. But they did not throw the Old Testament overboard. The moral law was as good as it ever was. But the council showed, once and for all, the true relations between Christian faith and obedience to the law of God.

There is just one doorway to the Father's house, the doorway of faith. We do not have to keep the law of Moses, or any set of laws, first. We are saved BY obedience.

We are not saved FROM obedience. But we are saved FOR obedience. A Christian's obedience to God is not a way of earning God's good-will. It is a grateful response to God's grace. And that makes all the difference in the world.

From Congressman N. M. Mason

Government Favoritism with RFC Loans: Henry Kaiser owes Uncle Sam $194,000,000. The Kaiser-Frazer Corporation recently secured from the RFC a new loan of $34,400,000 to pay the cost of re-tooling their plant in order to produce the new 1950 Kaiser-Frazer auto models; and another loan of $10,000,000 to establish a Credit Set-up for Kaiser-Frazer dealers in order to help them handle the output of the Kaiser-Frazer Corporation.

Since the new Kaiser-Frazer car will be sold in competition with other light weight cars—Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth—American taxpayers should wonder why Uncle Sam lends taxpayers' money to some big manufacturers on favorable, liberal, easy terms, while their competitors have to take their chances of borrowing from the banks on regular banking terms covering interest charges and adequate collateral.

The Lustron Corporation of Columbus, Ohio, is another example of a favored RFC borrower. This corporation is supposed to manufacture prefabricated steel houses, but so far has turned out very few. The promoters of this company put up only $10,000 of their own money, but have already secured loans amounting to $37,500,000 from the RFC and have applied for $14,500,000 more.

When the Lustron Corporation applied to the RFC for their first loan in 1947, it is understood that the application was turned down by the RFC directors, but President Truman personally intervened in the case and forced the directors to reverse their position and grant the loan.

Has Uncle Sam decided to favor certain business friends but handicap, hinder, and punish certain other business concerns because they are not friendly toward the so-called Fair Deal? If the Administration takes taxpayers' money and uses it to reward certain business friends and to punish certain business enemies, then we are headed down the road to National Socialism.

THE A&P SUIT

It is axiomatic that bigness of any kind means power, and power unchecked means power abused. The Federal government has brought suit against the A&P in an effort to break up that organization because the government charges its very bigness makes it a monopoly, per se. What is a monopoly?

Webster says a monopoly is 1. "a conspiracy to limit production and maintain high prices; 2. an illegal combination in restraint of trade; 3. a combination having exclusive control of." Does the A&P limit production and maintain high prices? Of course not; in fact, it does the exact opposite. Does the A&P restrain or restrict trade in any way? Of course not; it facilitates trade rather than restricts trade. Is the A&P a combination having exclusive control of? Of course not; it handles less than 6% of the Nation's groceries. Then, why the suit?

The Federal government itself is the greatest economic monopoly on earth outside the iron curtain. The Federal government not only restricts agricultural production by acreage control in order to maintain high prices, but it also corners the market by buying up millions of pounds of butter and billions of eggs in order to control prices. One wonders therefore if the A&P suit is not a case of the pot calling the kettle black? (Our bureaucratic Government is a very dirty pot and the A&P is a clean, shiny pot.)

Which is more dangerous, a corporation regulated by federal, state and local governments, with its great power diffused by ownership distribution; or a bureaucratic monopoly exercising economic power that is not regulated, but is in the hands of politicians of the Pendergast-Machine type? This is a question that the voters must ponder over and try to answer in 1950.

Explain Best Method To Cook Vegetables

Good methods of handling and cooking vegetables are more important than the utensil you use, says Miss Winona Brower, of the foods research laboratory, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

"When you hear someone quoting figures from research proving that a particular type of utensil is far superior to any other, you may be sure that the figures have been selected to prove the point," Miss Brower says. Some research proves that it makes no difference whether the utensil is aluminum, glass, enamel or stainless steel.

Any utensil that enables you to accomplish the following principles should give you good results in vegetable cookery, except perhaps with green and sulfur-containing vegetables. (You may prefer to cook these in an open utensil with more water.)

These principles are: Use as small an amount of water as possible in cooking. Cook as quickly as possible. Cook only until just done; overcook.

A saucepan with a tight-fitting cover is necessary to meet these principles. With a tight-fitting cover, you can use a smaller amount of water and cook the vegetables in steam. Experiments have shown that the amount of water used in cooking vegetables affects the amount of water-soluble vitamins dissolved out. So if you use just enough water to keep the vegetable from burning, there shouldn't be more than a few spoonfuls of juice left. You can use these in sauces, gravies, etc.

For cooking green vegetables like asparagus and broccoli, and for cooking sulfur-containing vegetables such as cabbage, onions, and cauliflower, some specialists recommend that you leave the lid off. You'll need to increase the amount of water to cover the vegetables, since you are no longer cooking in steam.

Home Bureau Oppose Attacks on Bigness

The Illinois Home Bureau Federation during its annual meeting at Champaign, Ill., February 7, opposed the government's attack on "bigness" in business.

In a resolution passed at the meeting, which was attended by delegates from all counties in the state, the federation went on record as "opposing government effort to destroy, because of large size or because of great area served, and efficiently operated, ethically administered marketing unit".

The stand of the federation apparently was aimed at the current government anti-trust suit which seeks to break up the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company. This suit was the basis for discussion during the formulation of the resolution.

The federation which has a membership of 50,000 farm women in Illinois said, "we as rural people are both producers and consumers, and as such are actively interested in and affected by any efforts of government to control competitive free enterprise in the field of marketing."

The resolution also stated that
"we recognize the right of the government to investigate and to prosecute when found guilty any such corporations or organizations as create monopolies to trusts in the restraint of free enterprise."

The federation meeting was held at the University of Illinois in conjunction with the Annual Farm and Home Week.

held each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock up to and including March 29.

Under The Cross Of Malta

The regular Post meeting last Thursday evening, February 9 was again well attended. Our 5th district Commander, Joseph Jolley, of Post 2149, Bensenville, was present and complimented us very highly in all respects. Assistant deputy inspector at large Comrade Schugert of Post 5036, St. Charles, was also present and inspected our post. In his remarks he assured us that William Martin Post 725 was on the ball and that his report to department headquarters would be excellent for us. A motion was made and approved to send $5.00 to the 5th district Quartermaster toward purchasing a set of Colors for the district.

Reporting on our new building we can tell you that the main floor is finished, during the last few days the maple floor has been very well groomed, the beautiful lights have been installed and folks you are all going to be delighted when you step into this room. If the Office Boy will again bicycle himself down we can give him some dope on what will happen on St. Patrick's day, and oh yes, Office Boy, the piano now has a pitch slightly under 440.

Commander Saarela would like all post members to give or send their 1950 dues to Quartermaster Fred Steinhagen.

In the Summit game, our center, Jack Martie, amassed a total of 11 baskets for 22 points for top honors in the scoring column.

The Mokena team wishes and hopes that the people in our town are interested in our remaining games so as to have a large attendance.

Mrs. O'Neill Gives Tea for Workers

Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove, candidate for State Senator from this district entertained a group of her Minute-women for Will county at a luncheon in the Louis Joliet hotel last Friday noon. Mrs. George Arbeiter of Joliet was chairman.

There were 21 women present who all expressed themselves as very anxious to do all possible to have her win the election.

Mrs. O'Neill, who was the first woman in the state to hold a state office, that of Representative, stated she felt her experience in this work, continually since 1922, is well qualified to be Senator. She stated that if elected, one thing she will do, is to try to create a legislature forum in each county of her district to discuss bills as they come up and thus have the home folks realize the state problems and give their instructions to their state servants.

This forum idea made such a hit, that a motion was made from the floor at once, that with Mrs. Arbeiter as chairman, steps should be taken to create the forum. It was cited that DuPage county has not had a senator for the past 50 years, and that it was felt it was only fair that DuPage county have that privilege now, especially so when DuPage's candidate has a record that cannot be exceeded.

A Chain of Prayer Around the World

World Day of Prayer will be observed this year in 90 countries. As customary, the date of its observance will be the first Friday of Lent which falls this year on February 24. In Orlando Park it will be held in the Methodist Sanctuary at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

"The chain of prayer will be made of millions of people worshipping in all corners and centers of the earth and praying in sixty different languages," said Mrs. Welthy H. Fisher, chairman, World Day of Prayer Committee.

"Following the sun, it will be started in the Fiji Islands at dawn and continue westward from the crowded ports of Singapore and Shanghai into isolated villages of China and Pakistan; from the African jungles to the Arctic wildernesses."

"World Day of Prayer is interdenominational, interracial and international in scope," said the local chairman, adding that offerings are divided between missionary work at home and abroad to bring the people of our country and the world into greater communion with each other through supplying their spiritual, educational and recreational needs.
